Your message shapes your brand. Your brand shapes your sphere. Your sphere promotes your success.

What is your brand?

YOU. You are the brand.

1. Social Media is our handshake from business owner to client. And it's free.
2. When I look at your page, do I immediately know what you do? Is it public?
 - a. Your name/handle
 - b. Your bio
 - c. Your cover photo

3. Content matters. Consistency is key.

a. Choose 3-5 categories to rotate posting. Here are mine:

i. Myself - Did you know that photos of faces get 38% more likes?

ii. Work - New listings, sold listings, reviews, market news, team news

iii. My family - Lainey or Nolan with a listing sign

iv. Quotes - Branded with my name

THEM: WHAT SIGN ARE YOU MOST COMPATIBLE WITH?
ME: SOLD SIGNS.

4. Repeat after me: I will not give opinions on the virus/politics. Just don't.

The magic is in the consistency.

If Zillow is doing a better job at staying in touch with your past clients, there is a problem.

Who is your sphere?

Followers are great but unless these followers are recommending you or using you-- they are just a number.

Your sphere are the people that interact with your posts.

These are the people you want to engage, educate & serve.

But how? Here are a few ways to stay top of mind:

1. Friend-request every client AND agent that you work with.
2. Acknowledge life events.
 - a. Birthdays
 - b. Anniversaries/Babies
 - c. Home-Anniversaries
3. Promote and support local stores/restaurants and check-in -- you're the market expert!
4. Go live at your listings and open houses. House of the week?
5. Feature local events.
6. Create a contest for followers.
7. Make a facebook page for community listings: "Portage Lakes Properties"

If you need to increase production, increase the number of people you are talking to every day.

Social Media Key Performance Indicators

1. Post a photo 2-3 times a week.
 - a. Photos need to be a stopping point - should be visually appealing
 - i. A person sees 7,500 ads a day and the average attention span is 8 seconds
 - ii. Unsplash.com free stock images
 - iii. Canva.com event graphics, just listed/just sold graphics
 - iv. ColorStory App for photo editing
 - b. Don't get hung up on the caption - get to the point & then add emoji's 😊
 - i. Top performing online content is at a 9th grade reading level
 - ii. If you can't think of content, create a call to action
2. Post on stories DAILY.
3. Go live once a week at a showing or a listing.
4. Post a market update video once a month.
5. Hashtags.

Social media allows you to network, collaborate, and share your work with others. Building a solid network via social media is the most valuable thing you can do for your business or personal brand.

Social Success.

Social success comes from making new connections, following up & keeping in touch.

Build your brand.

Build your network.

Build your success.
